PATRIOTISM PROMPTS ACTION OF YOUNG MAN

John Hall Waives Claims for Deferred Classification and Goes to War.

(Special to The News.)
Georgetown, May 27.—An exhibition of the spirit, which makes America invincible, and which is occurring in thousands of homes today all over America, was shown by a young man of this little town when he appeared before the local board at Decatur and waived all claims for deferred classification and asked the privilege of going in training with his neighbor boys who go from Meigs county to Camp Pike, Arkansas, Tuesday.

John Hall had been placed in a deferred class by the local board on industrial grounds, but when his neighbors were called to the colors an irresistible impulse to go to his country's aid with them caused him to appear before his board as stated.

Being told that Meigs county's quota for the present had already been selected, young Hall asked if he could not replace the one he had been included in. To this the board agreed, and thus Damon and Pythias was re-enacted.
